M'GUIRE'S TEAM VS. HIGH SCHOOL

Deciding Game in Scholastic Championship Will Be Played To-Day.

The deciding game for the scholastic football championship of Richmond will be played at Broad Street Park this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, between McGuire's and John Marshall High School.

Both teams are now in prime condition, and a close and exciting game is expected. The prep school teams are much disconcerted over what they term the lack of support on the part of the public. The games have not drawn large crowds, despite the fact that they are interesting and hard fought.

While it is admitted that John Marshall has had a little the best of the arguments up to the present time, it is held that the other teams know something of the game, and are capable of giving a good account of themselves. The public has simply lagged, and those composing the teams feel that they have not been sufficiently encouraged. Indications now point to a large crowd this afternoon, however, and it seems certain that little complaint can be forthcoming after the game.

McGuire's team reports continual hard practice and much improvement. If this be true the game should be very close, and those who have witnessed other contests of this team feel assured that the material is on hand for a good team.

Over at the High School the men are confident that they can repeat their previous performances, and are positive of victory. However, surprises have been sprung before, and the game to-day may prove a surprise.

YELLOW JACKETS SAY THEY WILL WIN GAME

Contest on Saturday Will Probably Decide Eastern Collegiate Championship—Both Teams Report That They Are Ready for Hard Battle.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Ashland, Va., November 10.—Hampden-Sidney is taking singing, hoping, thinking of nothing else these days except the game on Saturday with Yellow Jackets in Richmond. The team of Yellow Jackets has been gradually developed and according to student opinion has plenty of reserve power as yet untouched.

If this estimate be true, it is certain that all the strength of the squad will be concentrated in Saturday's game. The team is in good condition and is working faithfully and hard. Richmond will see a hard game.

From all these sources Hampden-Sidney claims a big share in the championship cup. Randolph-Macon passes the word along to wait until Saturday. At any rate, if Hampden-Sidney wins this game the championship is theirs. It is the first appearance of this fast team in Richmond, and a big crowd is expected at the game.

Reports from Hampden-Sidney say that the students from there will also be out in force. If so, there will be a contest of lungs during the game, as the rivalry between the colleges is intense, especially in football.

Dope on the result is plentiful. Hampden-Sidney beat Richmond College, 15 to 6; Richmond beat Randolph-Macon, 5 to 9 in their exhibition game. Hampden-Sidney whipped the University of Medicine, 17 to 6; the Doctors beat the Yellow Jackets, 3 to 2. The Farmville ladies took the Williamsburgers into camp, 17 to 6, and Randolph-Macon did the same to the time of 11 to 2.

Charlottesville, Va., November 10.—The twenty-first annual field trials of the National Beagle Club of America began this morning on the club's hunting rights in the vicinity of Shadwell, this county, about six miles east of Charlottesville. The show is under the rules of the American Kennel Club, and is open to all beagles fifteen inches and under in height.

The entry list is the largest in the history of the National Beagle Club, and the show promises to be the most successful in the history of the club. The best dogs of England and America will be shown, and probably nowhere in the world is there such a popular field trial.

The club has leased the hunting rights in the vicinity of Shadwell, in all about 1,000 acres. The headquarters of the club is at "Hunter's Hall," the property of H. A. S. Hamilton. The majority of the exhibitors reached Shadwell yesterday afternoon.

To-day was given up to the packs of eight. To-morrow the packs of four will be run. On Sunday the bench show will be held, and beginning Monday the races will be run. The judges are LePage Crommiller, of Laurel, Md., and Frank D. Stuart, of Jersey City, N. J.

The entries include William G. Rockefeller, A. L. Burden, George B. Post, Jr., Harry Payne Whitney, Dr. H. Dickson Bruis, James W. Appleton, T. Dudley Riggs, Henry W. Warner, E. J. Freudenfeld, Walter J. Pew, Theodore H. Turner, Dr. R. Lester Jones, Dr. Geo. W. Fisher, James P. Van Dyke, J. F. Lunk, Chetwood Smith, Ramsay Turnbull, George F. Reed, G. Milfin Wharton and many others.

TEARS ARE READY FOR BOWLING MEET

Schedule Formulated and Games Will Be Hard Fought—Many Prizes Offered.

A slight change has been made in the schedule of games of the Richmond Bowling Association, which was recently organized for the purpose of fostering bowling in Richmond. The first game will be played on the New. Always on next Tuesday night, as previously announced, but the bowlers say that they are not in condition to meet the strong Times-Dispatch team, and so the Meat Packers will be the first aggregation led to the slaughter. Of course, the Meat Packers will tell you that if there is any slaughtering to be done they will be doing it, for that is their regular line of business, but "there's many a slip" especially on a bowling alley.

As a matter of fact it is really surprising to see the amount of interest manifested in these games. There were some skeptics when the association was being formed, but now since six teams have come out and signed their intention to fight for the trophies offered until the last horn blows, a number of men have come to the bowling alley to be tried out. A trip to Buffalo is one of the inducements offered, and hundreds are anxious to be members of the championship team which Richmond will send to the national tournament, which will be held in that city next year. In addition to the honor and prestige, being a member of the team will be the opportunity offered to make some money, as the prizes at the national tournament are to be shared at.

The official schedule of games for the new association has just been formulated. This schedule calls for three games a week, and the teams have been well matched. Some high scores will result. Following is the schedule:

Wednesday, November 14—Meat Packers vs. Times-Dispatch.

Wednesday, November 16—Plumbers vs. Jewelers.

Snafts From Sportland

By G. MALBERT

Joseph Tinker, or plain Joe, as they call him out in Chicago, whose main business is playing shortstop for the Cubs, has had a dream. He says that in his dream he had a vision that Johnny Evers, whose duty is to look after balls labeled hit around second base, would not be in the game next year, and Joe is worried. He has a great deal to do, and he is absolutely certain that if Evers is out of the game his work will suffer. It is a great pity that a baseball player is allowed to dream. Evers will play with the Cubs next year, if he is alive, and all this talk to the contrary might do him no good for Taneyville and winter evenings, but it doesn't stand straight where the tall grass is.

Also be it noted that Evers has turned down the job of coaching the Yale baseball team. Orville Gray has taken it up. Overall says that his wing is good again, and that the workout at New Haven will hardly just about right when the season opens. There are many who hope it will.

Count Zeppelin has been convinced that the real easy money in the flying line is not in the U. S. A. All you have to do is fly high enough. So the count is coming over and will try to show some of the money he has made in Germany. He really means to be a master of air craft. He is coming next week, and will be given the glad hand of fellowship, whatever that may mean.

Now comes Mr. Harry-Yost throwing a great big scare into the Wolverines' camp. Orville Gray has taken it up. Overall says that his wing is good again, and that the workout at New Haven will hardly just about right when the season opens. There are many who hope it will.
